Rule 47-96-1

Serial No.

1) Under clause (b) of Sub-Section (2) of Sectio 63 of the Village Panchayet Regulation, a Panchaye may compound offences under the Regulation, which m by the rules made by Government be declared compou able. In Madras, some offences are made compounda with the permission of the court, while others may be compounded by the Panchayets themselves. The offences that are not compoundable are also shown in a Schedule. It appears unnecessary to provide for compounding with the permission of the court ~~to state what offences are not compoundable~~ in our rules. A draft notification prescribing a rule for compounding offences is submitted for approval or other orders.

DS 11/10/27

A revised draft as directed is submd for approval in regard to compounding of offences under the V. P. Regulation. A draft calling for the opinion of the Dy comrs and the Rev comr is also submd

The Revenue Commr however suggests that all offences under S. 62 may be made non-Compoundable as it is not desirable especially in the early stages, for Offenders to think that they can obstruct Panchayat Officers in the performance of their duties & escape by Compounding if Desd

8) As regards the suggestion of the Revenue Concurrence, kind reference is invited to para 1 of the notes the Panchayats are in an early stage and it may perhaps be to their advantage to make the offences compoundable

9) If it is not considered necessary to wait for the opinion of those who have not yet replied the Rules may be finally passed and Govt orders with a statement of opinions received. A time limit has been fixed & it may not be necessary to wait any longer the matter may perhaps now come
